ACT II.—SCENE 1. Lorenzo's cavern. One sweet kiss. Cupid. Fooled by Rossy. SCENE 2—The Bower of Roses. Captain Randall's song. "To the Queen." Tell me of this magic power. Washington shows the girls some new ideas. The wish ring song. They haven't done it yet. Washington Knowall. The birth of flowers. Treachery. The Queen's jealousy. The Captain shall die. "No; a queen, but with a woman's heart." The laughing prude. A black joke played on Washington. Dahlia appears. That's different, but do all angels come from Chicago? Washington in love. Grand musical finale.

ACT III.—SCENE 1. Zozo's garden. Attempt at bribery. Cupid can't be bought. Good evening. Cupid left. SCENE 2.—The White Palace. Lorenzo's love for Rhododendron. Zelda's rage. You shall suffer mercy. Washington to the rescue. We shall meet later. Zozo defies Lorenzo. Cupid and Rossy in love with Gladiola; they settle with an amusing glove contest. Grand military drill and march by the Queen's own guards. Lorenzo's last demand. Combat. Death of Lorenzo. Sudden appearance of the phantom ship.

ACT IV.—The Grand Transformation. A gorgeous living picture of Zozo. Mirror Lake with scenic, mechanical and calcium effects, that justly entitles it to the appellation of the crowning achievement of the spectacular world.
